Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP Files Class Action Suit against EPIX Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Thursday January 27, 4:40 pm ET

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 27, 2005--Lerach Coughlin Stoia Geller Rudman & Robbins LLP ("Lerach Coughlin") (<http://www.lerachlaw.com/cases/epix/>) today announced that a class action lawsuit has been commenced in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts on behalf of purchasers of EPIX Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("EPIX") (NASDAQ:EPIX - News) securities during the period between July 10, 2003 and January 14, 2005 (the "Class Period").

If you wish to serve as lead plaintiff, you must move the Court no later than 60 days from today. If you wish to discuss this action or have any questions concerning this notice or your rights or interests, please contact plaintiff's counsel, Samuel H. Rudman or David A. Rosenfeld of Lerach Coughlin at 800/449-4900 or 619/231-1058 or via e-mail at wsl@lerachlaw.com. If you are a member of this class, you can view a copy of the complaint as filed or join this class action online at <http://www.lerachlaw.com/cases/epix/>. Any member of the purported class may move the Court to serve as lead plaintiff through counsel of their choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an absent class member.

The complaint charges EPIX and certain of its officers and directors with violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. EPIX (formerly known as EPIX Medical Inc.) is a developer of targeted contrast agents that are designed to improve the diagnostic quality of images produced by magnetic resonance imaging ("MRI"). MRI is an imaging technology for a range of applications, including the identification and diagnosis of a variety of medical disorders.

The complaint alleges that, by the start of the Class Period, defendants became aware of clinical quality issues with the underlying data for their MS-325 Phase III program. MS-325 is designed to provide visual imaging of the vascular system through a type of MRI known as magnetic resonance angiography. These issues, including the generation of unintelligible imaging scans, made difficult, if not impossible, the proper control of their clinical test results and statistical analysis of the data and results. On December 16, 2003, defendants announced the submission of their New Drug Application ("NDA") for MS-325. Defendants continued to conceal the serious problems with their clinical program, specifically the poor quality of the underlying clinical data and problems with the statistical analysis. Defendants instead made positive and encouraging remarks about their "extensive scientific and clinical development" activities and prospects for product approval.

Then, on January 14, 2005, as alleged in the Complaint, the Company reported shocking news about the MS-325 submission. Although defendants sought to place a positive spin on their receipt of an "approvable" action letter from the U.S. Food & Drug Administration ("FDA") for MS-325, the news was far from positive. The FDA had determined that problems with the Phase III clinical trials were so serious that it was impossible for them to come to a conclusion about the efficacy of MS-325. Worse, the FDA noted problems with the underlying data itself, problems that could not be resolved simply on the basis of re-analysis of the data. Thus, defendants delivered a serious setback to investors and, based on their news, the price of EPIX stock plunged 27%, to $10.67, for a loss of $3.98 per share, on volume of 11 million shares.

Plaintiff seeks to recover damages on behalf of all purchasers of EPIX securities during the Class Period (the "Class"). The plaintiff is represented by Lerach Coughlin, which has expertise in prosecuting investor class actions and extensive experience in actions involving financial fraud.

Lerach Coughlin, a 140-lawyer firm with offices in San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York, Boca Raton, Washington, D.C., Houston, Philadelphia and Seattle, is active in major litigations pending in federal and state courts throughout the United States and has taken a leading role in many important actions on behalf of defrauded investors, consumers, and companies, as well as victims of human rights violations. Lerach Coughlin lawyers have been responsible for more than $20 billion in aggregate recoveries. The Lerach Coughlin Web site (<http://www.lerachlaw.com>) has more information about the firm.

EXHIBIT C - INVESTOR MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT
(Non-ERISA)

This Agreement is made and entered into this _____ by and between _____ ("Client") and Disciplined Growth Investors, Inc. ("Adviser"), for the purpose of setting forth the terms and conditions by which Adviser will manage the assets designated for management and shall become effective on _____, 2004 (the "Effective Date").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Appointment as an Adviser Client hereby appoints and retains Adviser as investment adviser to Client on the terms and conditions set forth herein for those assets of Client from time to time designated in writing by Client (the "Portfolio"). Adviser will assume responsibility for the investment management of the Portfolio on the Effective Date.

2. Authority Adviser shall have full discretionary authority with respect to the assets of the Portfolio, subject to such limitations as Client may impose by notice in writing from time to time. Adviser, as agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to the Portfolio, when it deems appropriate, without prior consultation with Client, may (a) buy, sell, exchange, convert and otherwise trade in any stocks, bonds and other securities, including but not limited to money market instruments, mutual funds, warrants, put and call options to buy or sell stock, bonds and other securities, and contracts related to same, on margin or otherwise, or engage in any new investment technique for the acquisition or sale of any of the foregoing securities ("securities"), for such prices and at such terms as Adviser, in its sole discretion, deems advisable, (b) place orders for the execution of such securities transactions with or through such brokers, dealers or issuers as Adviser may select, and (c) act on behalf of Client in all matters whatsoever necessary or incidental to the serving of the Portfolio and all transactions therein; provided, however, that Adviser shall not have authority to appropriate or obtain custody of any assets in the Portfolio, except as otherwise agreed in writing by Client and Adviser.

3. Services of Adviser By execution of this Agreement, Adviser accepts the appointment as investment adviser and agrees to manage and direct the investments of the Portfolio in accordance with the investment objectives of Client as communicated to Adviser in writing from time to time. Client acknowledges that Adviser does not warrant the rate of return on or market value of the investments of the Portfolio, and agrees that the sole standard of care imposed upon Adviser by this Agreement is to act with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. It is agreed that Adviser, in the maintenance of its records, does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of information furnished by Client or any other party.

4. Custodianship Banc of America Securities, LLC, or such other entity or entities as Client shall specify in writing, shall act as custodian for all assets of the Portfolio. To facilitate the management of the Portfolio, Adviser may (a) direct such custodian to hold securities and investments, (b) direct such custodian to hold credit balances in a custodian account at a national bank, together with other funds held by such custodian, (c) make all sales, purchases and exchanges of securities and other investments to, from or through such persons, partnerships and corporations as Adviser may select, and (d) direct such custodian to settle all transactions in the customary manner and in the usual course of business.

Adviser shall quarterly send to Client an itemized statement showing the funds and securities in the Portfolio as of the date of such statement and all debits, credits and transactions in the Portfolio since the date of the last statement. Client shall take whatever action is required to permit Adviser to carry out its discretionary authority as provided in paragraph 2 hereof. Adviser shall not be responsible for any loss incurred by reason of any act or omission of any custodian or any broker or dealer that may be selected by the Adviser to execute transactions for the Portfolio; provided, however, that Adviser will make reasonable efforts to require that any such brokers, dealers and custodians perform their obligations with respect to the Portfolio.

5. Confidential Relationship All information and advice furnished by either party to the other hereunder, including their respective agents and employees, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties except as required by law.

6. Services to Other Clients It is understood that Adviser performs investment advisory services for various clients. Client agrees that Adviser may give advice and take action with respect to any of its other clients which may differ from advice given or the timing or nature of action taken with respect to the Portfolio, so long as it is the Adviser's policy, to the extent practical, to allocate investment opportunities to the Portfolio over a period of time on a fair and equitable basis relative to other clients. It is understood that Adviser shall not have any obligation to purchase or sell, or to recommend for purchase or sale, for Client's account any security which Adviser, its principals, affiliates or employees may purchase or sell for its or their own accounts or for the account of any other client, if in the opinion of Adviser such transaction or investment appears unsuitable, impractical or undesirable for Client's account.

7. Allocation of Brokerage When Adviser places orders for the execution of portfolio transactions for the Portfolio, Adviser may allocate such transactions to such brokers and dealers, for execution on such markets, at such prices and at such commission rates as in the good faith judgment of Adviser will be in the best interest of the Portfolio, taking into consideration in the selection of such brokers and dealers not only the available prices and rates of brokerage commissions, but also other relevant factors (such as, without limitation, execution capabilities, research and other services provided by such brokers or dealers which are expected to enhance the general portfolio management capabilities of Adviser, and the value of an ongoing relationship of Adviser with such brokers and dealers) without having to demonstrate that such factors are of a direct benefit to the Portfolio.

8. Inside Information Adviser shall have no obligation to seek to obtain any material non-public ("inside") information about any issuer of securities, or to purchase or sell, or to recommend for purchase or sale, for the Portfolio the securities of any issuer on the basis of any such information as may come into its possession.

9. Proxies Adviser will be responsible for voting all proxies pertaining to the assets of the account unless Client retains proxy voting authority by providing written revocation of Adviser's authority to vote such proxies. Adviser may, in its sole discretion, consult Client for direction of proxy voting.

10. Fees The compensation of Adviser for its services under this Agreement shall be calculated and paid in advance of the calendar quarter in accordance with the attached Fee Schedule, which may be amended from time to time by the Adviser upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Client. In the event that this Agreement is terminated on any day other than the last day of a calendar quarter, the fees to be paid to Adviser hereunder shall be prorated accordingly. Any fees not paid within such period shall be paid from the Portfolio. It is agreed that such fees are paid solely in exchange for the services of Adviser as described in paragraphs 2 and 3 and that brokerage charges, commissions, taxes and other costs incident to the purchase and sale of securities which are included in the cost of securities purchased or charged against the proceeds in the case of sale shall be charged to and paid out of the Portfolio.

11. Valuation In computing the market value of any investment of the Portfolio, each security listed on any national securities exchange or the NASDAQ National Market or NASDAQ Small Cap Market shall be valued at the last quoted sale price on the valuation date on the principal exchange or on the NASDAQ market on which such security is traded. Any other security or assets shall be valued in a manner determined in good faith by Adviser to reflect its fair market value.

12. Investment Objectives and Restrictions It will be Client's responsibility to advise Adviser of the investment objectives of the Portfolio and of any changes or modifications therein as well as any specific investment restrictions applicable hereto and to give Adviser prompt written notice if Client deems any investments made for the Account to be in violation of such objectives or restrictions. Unless Client notifies Adviser in writing of specific restrictions, the investments made on behalf of the Portfolio shall be deemed not to be restricted under the current or future laws of any state or by virtue of the terms of any contract or instrument purporting to bind Client or Adviser.

13. Representations and Warrants The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Client shall constitute the representation by Client that the terms hereof do not violate any obligation by which Client is bound, whether arising by contract, operation of law or otherwise, and if Client is a corporation or trust, that this Agreement and the types of investment contemplated hereby have been duly authorized and when this Agreement is so executed and delivered it will be binding upon Client in accordance with its terms. Client agrees that it will deliver to Adviser such evidence of such authority as Adviser may reasonably request, whether by way of certified corporate resolution or otherwise.

14. Personnel Designations Client may not designate the employee, officer or associate of Adviser who shall perform the services set forth in this Agreement.

15. Assignment No assignment, as that term is defined in the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended from time to time, of this Agreement shall be made by Adviser without the written consent of Client.

16. Amendment This Agreement may be amended at any time by written agreement between Adviser and Client.

17. Termination This Agreement may be terminated without the payment of any penalty by either party upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party. This Agreement may also be terminated by Client without the payment of any penalty within five business days after the date of this Agreement upon written notice to Adviser. Notice shall be considered given when received by Adviser at the following address:

Suite 2100
100 South Fifth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

or when deposited by first class mail postage prepaid, addressed to Client's address as shown on Adviser's books. Such termination shall in no way affect the validity of this Agreement with reference to any transactions, trades, dealings and actions for the Portfolio initiated by Adviser prior to such termination. The Adviser's responsibility for investment management decisions shall cease upon receipt of the written notice of termination or upon remittance by it of such written notice of termination, unless a later date is specified in such notice.

18. Successors This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Adviser and its successors, irrespective of any change at any time in the personnel thereof. This Agreement shall bind Client, Client's estate and any heirs, beneficiaries or successors in interest with respect to all transactions, trades, dealings and actions by Adviser after Client's death, mental incapacity, insolvency, dissolution or liquidation until such time as Client's legal representative notifies Adviser, in the manner set forth herein, of his intention to terminate this Agreement.

19. Agreement to Arbitrate This Agreement and its enforcement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota. Adviser and Client acknowledge that this Agreement is being entered into to facilitate, among other things, Client's ability to buy and sell securities on national exchanges and markets, and that this Agreement therefore involves interstate commerce. Adviser and Client specifically agree and recognize that all controversies which may arise between Adviser, its agents, representatives or employees and Client, concerning any transaction, account or the construction, performance or breach of this or any other agreement between Adviser and Client, whether entered into prior, on or subsequent to the date hereof, shall be determined by arbitration to the fullest extent provided by law. Such arbitration shall be in accordance with the rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The client understands that it is not obligated to arbitrate disputes under the federal securities laws to the extent such claims are held not to be arbitrable as a matter of law.

20. Form ADV Client acknowledges that it has received Part II [and Schedule F] of Advisers Form ADV.

21. Non-ERISA Client hereby represents that none of the assets are assets of an employee benefit plan subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) as amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereof have executed this Agreement the date and year first above written.

Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP has been responsible for obtaining favorable appellate opinions which have broken new ground in the class action or securities fields or which have promoted shareholder rights in prosecuting these actions. Glancy Binkow & Goldberg successfully argued the appeals in Silber v. Mabon I, 957 F.2d 697 (9th Cir. 1992) and Silber v. Mabon II, 18 F.3d 1449 (9th Cir. 1994), which are the leading decisions in the Ninth Circuit regarding the rights of opt-outs in class action settlements. In Rothman v. Gregor, 220 F.3d 81, Glancy Binkow & Goldberg won a seminal victory for investors before the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, which adopted a more favorable pleading standard for investors in reversing the District Court's dismissal of the investors' complaint. After this successful appeal, Glancy Binkow & Goldberg then recovered millions of dollars for defrauded investors of the GT Interactive Corporation. The firm recently argued Falkowski v. Imation Corp., 309 F.3d 1123 (9th Cir. 2002), as amended, 320 F.3d 905 (9th Cir. 2003) and favorably obtained the substantial reversal of a lower court's dismissal of a cutting edge, complex class action brought to seek redress for a group of employees whose stock options were improperly forfeited by a giant corporation in the course of its sale of the subsidiary at which they worked. The revived action is currently proceeding in the California state court system.

The firm is also involved in the representation of individual investors in court proceedings throughout the United States and in arbitrations before the American Arbitration Association, National Association of Securities Dealers, New York Stock Exchange, and Pacific Stock Exchange. Mr. Glancy has successfully represented litigants in proceedings against such major securities firms and insurance companies as A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc., Bear Stearns, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., Morgan Stanley, PaineWebber Incorporated, Prudential Insurance Company, Prudential Securities, Inc., and Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc.

One of firm's unique skills is the use of "group litigation" - the representation of groups of individuals who have been collectively victimized or defrauded by large institutions. This type of litigation brought on behalf of individuals who have been similarly damaged often provides an efficient and effective economic remedy that frequently has advantages over the class action or individual action devices. The firm has successfully achieved results for groups of individuals in cases against major corporations such as Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Inc., and Occidental Petroleum Corporation.

Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP currently consists of the following attorneys:
